FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LSO to Spotlight Grammy Award-Winning Cellist at its March Concert

LYNCHBURG – The Lynchburg Symphony Orchestra is pleased to feature Grammy award-winning cellist Zuill Bailey at its March 2, 2019, concert at the Liberty University School of Music Concert Hall. Bailey is an internationally-recognized performer and recording artist.

“The LSO is thrilled to perform with such a high caliber musician as Mr. Bailey,” says Linda Edwards, president of the Lynchburg Symphony. “Concert attendees are in for a special treat.”

Bailey will perform the Dvořák Cello Concerto in the second half of the program. “It includes everything from dance-like rhythms to epic tunes, to personal and soulful elements,” says David Glover, who will guest conduct the concert. Glover formerly served as Associate Conductor of the North Carolina Symphony, and previously was Assistant Conductor of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra.

The first half of the March 2 concert will feature the LSO performing Finlandia by Jean Sibelius and Rimsky-Korsakov’s Capriccio Espagnol.

A link to purchase tickets to Zuill Bailey in Concert is available through the LSO website:

About the LSO

The Lynchburg Symphony Orchestra was started in 1983 as a way for local musicians to use their skills, while enhancing the community's arts programs. The LSO is a key contributor to Lynchburg's cultural, intellectual and creative vibrancy, helping to keep Lynchburg an attractive center for economic development – essential for businesses seeking to recruit and retain investors and employees. Beyond the price of a ticket, spending by arts organizations and their audiences supports jobs and generates government revenue. LSO musicians live and work in the Lynchburg area keeping attendee's investment in our community.

About Zuill Bailey

Zuill Bailey, widely considered one of the premiere cellists in the world, is a Grammy Award-winning, internationally renowned soloist, recitalist, Artistic Director and teacher. His rare combination of celebrated artistry, technical wizardry and engaging personality has secured his place as one of the most sought after and active cellists today.

A consummate concerto soloist, Mr. Bailey has been featured with symphony orchestras worldwide. Mr. Bailey has also appeared at Disney Hall, the Kennedy Center, the United Nations, Alice Tully Hall, the 92nd St. Y and Carnegie Hall. In addition, he made his New York recital debut in a sold-out performance of the Beethoven Cello Sonatas at the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Mr. Bailey received his Bachelor's and Master's Degrees from the Peabody Conservatory and the Juilliard School. His primary teachers include Loran Stephenson, Stephen Kates and Joel Krosnick. Mr. Bailey performs on the "rosette" 1693 Matteo Goffriller Cello, formerly owned by Mischa Schneider of the Budapest String Quartet. In addition to his extensive touring engagements, he is the Artistic Director of El Paso Pro-Musica (Texas), the Sitka Summer Music Festival/Series and Cello Seminar, (Alaska), the Northwest Bach Festival (Washington), Classical Inside and Out Series- Mesa Arts Center(Arizona) and Director of the Center for Arts Entrepreneurship at the University of Texas at El Paso.
